Fund commentary

Global share markets made strong gains in February, with the MSCI World Index – Net closing the month up 5.2% (or 3.5% higher in hedged AUD terms). The gains were driven largely by optimism the US and China will soon end their year-long trade impasse and some encouraging rhetoric from US Federal Reserve chairman, Jerome Powell. Australian shares were also positive for the month; the S&P/ASX 300 Accumulation Index rising 6.0% on the back of strong gains across the 'Big Four' banks, some dovish comments from Reserve Bank of Australia governor, Philip Lowe, and stronger commodity prices. Elsewhere, global bonds posted only modest gains in February, with the Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Bond Index returning 0.1% in hedged AUD terms. Australian bonds were also positive for the month, with the Bloomberg AusBond Composite 0+ Year Index returning 0.9%, while the domestic cash market returned 0.2%.
