Notes

4. The manager evaluates companies that meet the investment approach set out above using an ESG and values-based criteria when deciding to select, retain or sell an investment. The values-based criteria means not investing in companies or issuers that derive a material proportion (5% or more) of their revenue* from: the manufacture or sale of alcohol or tobacco^; the operation of gambling facilities or the manufacture or supply of gambling products; fossil fuels (exploration and extraction); uranium mining and nuclear based electricity generation; animal cruelty† (production of fur or exotic leather); genetic engineering; pornography; or armaments (including weapons)^.

* Generally calculated using the total gross amount of revenue generated by the sale of goods or services from normal business operations.

^ For involvement in the production of tobacco, the manufacture of nicotine alternatives and tobacco-based products and the development, production and maintenance of controversial weapons and manufacture or development of nuclear weapons, a 0% revenue threshold is applied.

Additionally, companies are scored (both positively and negatively) on a broad range of ESG factors such as the company's environmental policy and strategy and consideration of ESG factors in its supply chain management. Companies can receive negative scores for poor management of ESG risk issues, such as a poor approach to human rights, the environment, and corporate governance or supply chains. All company positive and negative scores are totalled, and companies or issuers rated below an acceptable threshold, as determined by the manager, will not be considered for investment by the fund.

5. The fund invests predominately in Australian shares listed on or proposed to be listed on any recognised Australian exchange but may have up to 20% exposure to international shares listed on or proposed to be listed on any recognised global exchange. The fund may also invest in Australian or international shares proposed to be listed within six months of any such recognised exchange, limited to 10% of the fund's net value. Currency hedges may be used from time to time.
6. The fund's total notional value of derivatives is limited to 10% of the fund's net asset value except on a temporary basis. Derivatives used to manage foreign exchange risk are excluded from this limit.
7. Asset allocations are updated quarterly. Generation Life's actual asset allocation categories may differ from the Investment Guidelines set by underlying managers who may use separate and distinct asset allocation classifications and measurement standards to define their investment universe.
